Wednesday 22 January—FULLY BOOKED
Wednesday 29 January—FULLY BOOKED
Wednesday 5 February—FULLY BOOKED
Wednesday 12 February—FULLY BOOKED
Wednesday 26 February—FULLY BOOKED
Wednesday 4 March - Tapas (Adults only) Participants will be taught the safety rules in the kitchen and given a brief knife skills lesson. They will help prepare the following tasty classics; Tortilla, Patatas Bravas, Prawn Pil-Pil and chicken with chorizo and chick peas.
Wednesday 11 March - Parent/Child Cooking Experience Parents can enjoy a couple of hours of fun with their child, learning to prepare a three course meal that they can impress their friends and family with. After a brief safety rules and knife skills lesson participants will produce the three courses (vegetarian option available) and eat it together in the Mange Tout Restaurant.
Wednesday 18 March - Young Chef Skills (11-16 years) Participants will be given a brief safety explanation and knife skills demonstration. They will then produce a soup, main course and dessert. Presentation skills will be worked on and then the meal will be eaten in the adjoining restaurant.
Wednesday 25 March - Ready, Steady Cook! (Adults only) Participants will be taught the safety rules in the kitchen and given a brief knife skills lesson. They will then be split into teams, given a bag of similar ingredients and asked to produce one or two courses in the allotted time. Chef will taste and decide on the winning team!
Wednesday 1 July - FULLY BOOKED

GENERAL NOTES AND INFORMATION

- The courses will run on Wednesday evenings, from 6.00- 8.00pm.
- The cost per head, which includes ingredients and refreshments, is £20.
- The Evening Classes are all using elements found in the City and Guilds Level 2 Culinary Skills course. Hopefully they may generate adult interest in the full time course offered at Knole Academy.
- All classes will have a brief knife skills and safety discussion to start the evening.
- Classes for under 19 students have been catered for.
- All participants will be able to participate in the cooking of the dishes throughout the evening, however, there are elements which will be demonstrated from time to time.
- The ingredients may change at the discretion of the chef and availability of produce.
- A certificate of attendance and recipe sheet will be handed out at the end of the evening, upon completion of the course.
- Participants attending the course must identify any allergies or physical problems which may affect their safety and their ability to take part.
