

Dress Code

Students are expected to be neat and clean at all times.

Full school uniform must be worn to and from school.

No jewellery may be worn other than a watch and one small plain gold or silver stud in each lower ear lobe. Confiscation of jewellery items is as follows:

- On a first offence (in an academic year) the item of jewellery will be held at reception to be collected at the end of the day.
- A second offence means that the parent/carer must collect at their convenience after at least 24 hours of confiscation.
- A third offence will result in the jewellery being confiscated for 5 school days. Only a parent/carer can then collect it.
- Further offences will be dealt with at the discretion of the school.

No make-up should be worn.

Nail varnish, false or acrylic nails are not permitted.

Eyelashes must be natural; no false lashes or extensions are permitted.

Hair should be a natural colour, no shorter than a number 3 cut and of a natural style.

No hair accessories other than a black hair band for tying back hair is allowed.

Shoes must be plain black low-heeled leather or leather-look and no higher than the ankle bone. Plimsolls or plimsoll-style shoes in any material are not permitted.

Black Nike Air Force 1 trainers with the chrome tag removed are the only trainers permitted.

Shirts must be tucked in and blazers worn at all times.

Sweaters are optional and do not need to be worn in hot weather.

Only badges presented by the school can be worn.

Hoodies are not permitted at any time.

Outdoor coats cannot be worn on the school premises - they should go into the locker on arrival at school.

Socks and tights must be plain, in good condition and not worn together.

Skirts must not be rolled up.

Any student who is not wearing a compulsory item of uniform will be offered a substitute item from the school stock subject to availability.

Any student who refuses to do this will be in the behaviour zone for the day and a behaviour point awarded on SIMS.

Students not wearing the correct uniform will always be given the opportunity to remove or change incorrect items. These will be confiscated for the day and a behaviour point awarded on SIMS.

Refusal to comply with the dress code will result in a day in isolation with the form tutor.

The Code of Conduct is under constant review and may be altered at the discretion of the Headteacher.
